

Short bio:

Dylan Roberts represents House District 26 in the Colorado House of Representatives, which encompasses Eagle and Routt Counties. Serving in this position since 2017, his work at the legislature has focused on lowering the cost of health care and prescription drugs, protecting our environment and water, finding ways to lower the cost of living, and promoting rural economic development. At the Capitol, he serves as the Chair of the Rural Affairs & Agriculture Committee and as a member of the Judiciary Committee. Dylan grew up in Routt County and now lives in Eagle County with his fiancé Sarah and their rescue-dog, Hattie.

Long Bio:

Dylan is a third-generation Coloradan who was lucky to grow up in Routt County and now calls Eagle County home. Dylan and his family love taking advantage of everything that makes this part of our state so great like skiing, hiking, fishing, and enjoying the amazing outdoors. More importantly, Dylan and his family have grown up in and value the supportive and resilient communities, businesses, and individuals that call the mountains home and is so proud to represent them at the Capitol.

Following law school at the University of Colorado, Dylan moved to Eagle County to begin serving as a Deputy District Attorney for Eagle County. In this position, Dylan fights for the victims of crime and pursues justice on behalf of the citizens of Eagle County. He has worked on cases across the Fifth Judicial District, encompassing Eagle, Summit, Lake, and Clear Creek Counties.

In November 2017, Dylan was sworn in as the State Representative for House District 26, encompassing Eagle County and Routt County, in the Colorado House of Representatives. In 2018, the voters elected Dylan for a full two-year term with a margin of 60%-36% and he is running for re-election for a second term in 2020.

During his time in the legislature, Dylan has quickly become one of the most effective, productive, and bipartisan legislators at the Capitol. He was appointed as the Chair of the House Rural Affairs & Agriculture Committee and as a member of the Judiciary Committee. He has passed dozens of pieces of legislation that lower the cost of health care and prescription drugs, protect Colorado's environment and water, and promote small business in rural Colorado.

Some of Dylan's key accomplishments at the legislature include:

HB19-1216 – A first in the nation bill to cap the cost of insulin that has now become a national model.

HB19-1004 and SB19-004 – A bill that has set Colorado up to implement a public health care option and give families and individuals an additional and affordable health insurance choice and legislation to remove regulations so that health care co-ops can operate in Colorado.

HB20-1003 – A bill to continue and expand the Rural Jump-Start Small Business Program that helps businesses open in rural Colorado

HB20-1157 – Legislation that expands the instream flow program that protects our rivers, outdoor recreation, and downstream agriculture during dry years
